

Consent Letter

With reference to my OCI application file reference number USAS059FFN24
I authorize the Indian Embassy/Consulate to make necessary corrections on observing errors in the OCI application.

2. I am aware that my consent is not an absolute binding on the Indian Embassy/Consulate in the light of the following:

- (i) The consent letter is just for the sake of facilitating an OCI applicant to avoid delay in processing the OCI application and it is not an assurance to edit the OCI application completely.
- (ii) All personal details are printed in the OCI card on the basis of the information submitted in the online OCI application and hence, the responsibility lies primarily with me to fill in correct details in the OCI application.
- (iii) The OCI application with errors is liable to be rejected in some cases and may be returned to me for submitting fresh OCI application with correct details.
- (iv) Any errors observed subsequently in the OCI card may be corrected only by submitting OCI miscellaneous service application for re-issue of OCI card.
